VMA VALVE MANUFACTURERS ASSOCIATION | VRC Valve Repair Council

2027 VALVE FORUM: CONFERENCE & EXHIBITS

Exhibit & Sponsorship Opportunities

May 18–20, 2027 | The Westin at The Woodlands, Texas

Connect with the people who design, manufacture, specify, sell, and use industrial valves and related products.

Valve Forum: Conference & Exhibits brings together professionals from across the valve, actuator, automation and flow control industry for three days of education, exhibits and meaningful industry connections. Produced by the Valve Manufacturers Association (VMA) and the Valve Repair Council (VRC), the Valve Forum combines high-quality technical, manufacturing, market trends and business programming with a focused exhibit environment designed to encourage substantive conversations between attendees and exhibitors.

In 2027, Valve Forum returns for a second consecutive year to The Westin at The Woodlands, Texas — a highly rated venue in a vibrant, walkable location that attendees praised following the 2026 event.

Why Exhibit at Valve Forum?

CONNECT WITH DECISION MAKERS

Meet approximately 150 decision makers and buying influencers from across the valve, actuator, automation and flow control industry.

SHOWCASE YOUR SOLUTIONS

Put your products, services and innovations directly in front of manufacturers, suppliers, distributors and end users through tabletop displays and small demonstrations.

BUILD RELATIONSHIPS

Benefit from dedicated exhibit networking during the Welcome Reception, breakfast, lunch and breaks — all structured to create focused time with attendees.

A More Focused Exhibit Experience

Valve Forum is intentionally designed to foster quality interaction. Rather than competing for attention on a massive trade show floor, exhibitors have dedicated opportunities to meet attendees, discuss solutions and build meaningful industry relationships. No conference programming is scheduled during exhibit hours and exhibitors are encouraged to participate in roundtable discussions, games, the optional facility tour and the Networking Night Out for additional opportunities to connect with attendees.

Who Should Exhibit?

Companies providing products, technologies, and services to the industrial valve industry — including valve and actuator manufacturers, component suppliers, automation and controls providers, distributors, suppliers to service and repair companies, engineering solutions providers, software and technology companies and other industry suppliers.

Valve Forum's tabletop exhibit format provides a cost-effective opportunity to put your products, services, and expertise directly in front of industry professionals without the expense or complexity of a traditional trade show booth.

Who Attends?

Valve Forum attracts approximately 150 professionals from across the valve, actuator, and flow control industry, including manufacturers, suppliers, distributors, and end users. Attendees represent technical and engineering, production and manufacturing, sales and marketing, and executive and business management roles.

What 2026 Exhibitors & Attendees Had to Say

EXHIBITOR "It gives us an opportunity to understand the industry and build relationships.

EXHIBITOR "Very welcoming event, everyone is friendly and the event was well communicated.

ATTENDEE "The conference was a great, smaller scale conference to network. The technical presentations were perfect for a quick overview of industry topics. The exhibitors were interesting and very applicable.

ATTENDEE "Limited exhibitors and limited attendees unlike huge expos. It gave more time for exhibitors and attendees to interact and have a meaningful discussion.
